DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings were received on 8-24-2006. These drawings are approved.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).
4. Claims 20-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Watanabe et al. (6,006,050) in view of Hayashi. Watanabe et al. teaches performing a calculation on the developer remaining amount after warm-up (figure 6; column 10, lines 16-46; column 11, lines 15-20). Yoshinori does not discuss a display means, which is normally conventional on an image forming device.

Hayashi teaches a display (figure 8). It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use the teaching of Hayashi with the image forming device of Yoshinori since it teaches a conventional display means for a conventional image forming device.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 1 and 3-17 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments with respect to the claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection. Applicant argues in reference to claims 20-21 that in the instant invention, it is possible to obtain more accurate results. However applicant claim that the controller performs a warm-up operation and that, during the warm-up operation, performs a calculation based on the remaining developer amount detected by the developer amount detector and on the data stored in the memory. Watanabe performs this process. The claims remain rejected as discussed above.

Conclusion

7. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

Art Unit: 2852

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
